

WineSpectator.com
 Membership

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Mollydooker Shiraz
 McLaren Vale Carnival of Love 2014

95 points / $75 / 1,467 cases made

Bold, expressive, velvety and generous, with ripe cherry and plum flavors at the core. Complex details of vanilla bean, licorice, Earl Grey tea and gingerbread explode on the long finish. Drink now through 2030. —MaryAnn Worobiec

WS WEBSITE MEMBERS:

Add this wine to your Personal Wine List

Bonus video: Harvey Steiman describes the 2012 vintage, which was the #2 wine of 2014.

Ask Wine Spectator...

Q: I want to buy some bottles from the year my daughter was born (2013) and save them for her down the road. I'm trying to consult vintage charts, but it is a bit overwhelming. Do you have any tips or suggestions?—Elizabeth, Metropolis, Ill.

A: I think that's a lovely idea. I was personally born in a not-so-great vintage, but there's something comforting to know I'm aging better than my vinous counterparts when I get a chance to taste them.

Since you don't know what kind of wine your daughter will like (or if she will even like wine), I'd pick something that's meaningful to you. That way, it's a more personal gift, sharing your love of wine with her. Besides, you might end up drinking the wine if she's not a fan of the stuff.

I don't mean to further overwhelm you, but we have our own vintage charts. It looks like 2013 was a good or great vintage in many wine regions around the world, but many of the reds are just now being released, so you'll have more information and options in a few more months or years. In general, Port, Burgundy, Bordeaux, Italian reds and Cabernet-based wines have the greatest reputation for aging. 2013 was also a great vintage for German Riesling, which has an excellent track record for aging.

Keep in mind that if you're purchasing wine now that won't be consumed for a couple of decades, make sure you have invested in good storage conditions to give the wine a chance to age gracefully. And as your daughter grows up, I'm sure there will be other opportunities to buy commemorative vintages for her. —MaryAnn Worobiec

Have a question about collecting? E-mail us.

Browse our archive of previous questions and answers.

WINE SPECTATOR.COM
 FREE 2-WEEK
 TRIAL MEMBERSHIP
 GET FULL
 ACCESS NOW!
 OVER 335,000
 WINE RATINGS

COURTESY OF PICHON-LONGUEVILLE BARON

2015 Bordeaux Barrel Tasting: 250+ Reviews

From red to white to sweet wines, Left Bank to Right Bank, first-growths to rising stars, senior editor James Molesworth has been in Bordeaux tasting the 2015 vintage from barrel. (WineSpectator.com members: See hundreds of his official blind-tasting scores and notes.) Follow along as he samples stunners at Pétrus, Vieux Château Certan and Cheval-Blanc. In Margaux, he uncovers an estate reaching new levels of quality, shakes the steady hands at the always-reliable Château Palmer and finds a very high bar set at Château Margaux. Plus he stops at many more top estates. Don't miss his notes if you're thinking about buying Bordeaux futures!

OPTIONAL PHOTO CREDIT

Wally's Auctions Division Puts Sale on Hold While It Looks For A Partner

The Los Angeles retailer has temporarily discontinued sales and is in talks with an international auction house over a potential partnership. Learn why Wally's is seeking the alliance.

Want to Know What Your Wine Is Worth?

Have your cellared wines increased in price? WineSpectator.com members: Find out the value of your wines in our Auction Price Database, now updated for the first quarter of 2016. Discover the price of your collectibles.

• IN MEMORIAM: 3 WINERIES LOSE FAMILY LEADERS

The dynamic Etienne Hugel helped bring Alsace to global renown. Louis Latour led his family's Burgundy domaine through tough times into the modern era. Barbara Richards and her husband made one of California's finest Merlots at Paloma. Read about their lives.

• CONSTELLATION BUYS THE PRISONER WINE COMPANY FOR $285 MILLION

Less than a year after buying Meiomi, the company sees potential in the red blend Dave Phinney created. Find out why the wine giant paid so much.

• IS CHENIN BLANC THE GREAT FORGOTTEN GRAPE?

Contributing editor Matt Kramer says it's time to pay attention to these overlooked, often-terrific whites from New Zealand, South Africa, California and, of course, France. Discover some of his favorite producers.

• ARIZONA PASSES CONSUMER-FRIENDLY WINERY DIRECT SHIPPING LAW

Gov. Doug Ducey signs bill permitting Arizona residents to buy and receive wine directly from in- and out-of-state wineries. See if your state allows direct shipping.

FOLLOW WINE SPECTATOR

Sign up for our newsletters!

SIPS & TIPS • UNFILTERED • WINE & HEALTHY LIVING • RATINGS FLASH • VIDEO
 THEATER • COLLECTING & AUCTIONS